			Description.	Short Details.
24	1880: 19 Nov.	Henry Wheeler	Murder	Henry Wheeler, whose father managed a large grazing farm for the army, and after several agencies, was murdered about 9 o'clock p.m., when returning home with Michael Moore, who is a hand on the farm. Moore alleged that when approaching a gap in a field, a man with his face blackened fired at Wheeler from the other side. Wheeler fell, while Moore ran to the nearest policeman to inform the police. Wheeler was found to have been struck with a bullet close to the chest, which went out close behind the left ear. The base of the skull was also fractured, as if by a large stone. It was thought that Patrick Moore, and his brother Michael, who accompanied him, were concerned in the murder. The account of the occurrence given by Michael Moore was inconsistent. Michael and Patrick Moore were arrested and remanded, but discharged for want of evidence.	Michael Moore - Patrick Moore.	Accused were re-manded, but afterwards discharged for want of evidence.

No.	Date of Offence.	Names of Injured Persons.	OFFENCE.		Names of Persons who Assisted.	Result of Proceedings.
			Description.	Short Details.
1	1880: 17 Oct.	Edmund Bourke.	Assault - evicting his.	Edmund Bourke was assaulted by the Ryans with a whip and staves, and received three cuts on the top of his head, one of which fractured his skull. The Bourkes, with a number of men, had undertaken to evict in her farm a couple of theirs, a widow, who, on the death of her husband, was turned out of the place by the friends of her husband. The Ryans and the deceased were cousins.	Patrick Ryan. Thomas Ryan.	At Cappanish Petty Sessions, 25th December 1880, case was returned for trial at Circuit Quarter Sessions. At Circuit Quarter Sessions, January 1881, the case was adjourned for trial at next Circuit Assizes.
2	31 Oct.	John Harrigan - Stephen Harrigan.	Firing into dwellings.	About 2.30 a.m. two panes of glass were broken in the sitting-room, and one pane in the bedroom window of Mr. Harrigan's house; Harrigan, who was asleep at the time, was awakened by the noise; he and his wife heard footsteps walking away from the house, and in a few moments afterwards they heard two distinct shots fired in rapid succession; these shots struck Stephen Harrigan's house, which is within a few yards of John's house. One bullet passed through a curtain pane of glass in a bedroom window, and the second having struck the wall, fell outside. The Harrigans have paid their rents in full, and though they subscribed to the Land League they did not attend any of the Land League meetings.	- - all - -	- - all.
3	1 Nov.	James Loeppan.	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	Loeppan received a letter through the post threatening his life if he did not order instant who holds 1/2 acre of land, against whom he holds no present claim.	- - all - -	- - all.
4	3 Nov.	John O'Donnell - Richard O'Donnell, John Coughlin, and other farmers.	- - -	Notices were posted on the doors of several farmers' houses, threatening them to leave their cattle ready if they paid more rent than Griffith's Valuation.	- - all - -	- - all.
5	4 Nov.	Timothy Gidlers.	Incendiary fire.	A smallrick of straw containing about three tons, the property of Gidlers, was burned. The rick was on a farm which formerly belonged to a cousin of Timothy Gidlers, who assigned it to the latter in consideration of a sum of 175 l . It is believed that he now wishes to secure possession of the farm also.	- - all - -	- - all.
6	7 Nov.	Francis Halliham.	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	Halliham found a notice posted on his door threatening him with death if he did not give up possession of a small farm which he was given voluntary possession of about 22 months ago by a cousin of his whom he admitted elsewhere as a tenant.	- - all - -	- - all.

			Description.	Short Details.
7	1880. 19 Nov.	Michael Delany -	Injury to property.	An iron gate, Delany's property, was maliciously taken down off his farm, and thrown into a pond a short distance away. Delany, some time ago, got from the agent the grazing of a field belonging to a farm from which the farmer has since been evicted, and the gate was erected to afford his cattle access and egress from his farm to this field.	- - all - -	- - all.
8	18 Dec.	John Fahy -	Intimidation otherwise.	A party of men, supposed to number about 14, visited Fahy's house about 6 p.m., and while preventing any persons from coming out by holding the latch, shouted out to those inside to pay one shilling, after which they fired a shot in the yard.	- - all - -	- - all.
9	21 Nov.	The public generally.	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	On Monday morning, 21st November, a notice was found posted on a small piece of land in the market square of Malinbeg, having the following words written on it:—"On the 21st November the shopkeepers will be in the gap watching their backs with regard to notices upon. Should anyone stay from the back, will be done disgracefully, and then closed to do."	- - all - -	- - all.
10	23 Nov.	Patrick Loughran -	Intimidation otherwise.	A party of men, numbering about 20, visited the house of Patrick Loughran, made him promise that he would surrender a small farm which he gave into possession of in August 1880, and informed him that if he did not they would return again and cut his body in four, and bury it in the churchyard. They then put a gun through the window, and one of them said to Loughran would get his contents if he failed to comply with their demands. The facts in question were corroborated by the farmer tenant to the landlord.	Patrick Neighlin	Neighlin was stationed at Wexford, Winter Assizes, 1880.
11	27 Nov.	- - date - -	Injury to property.	The party mentioned above broke three windows in Loughran's house in fragments before they left.	- - date - -	- - date.
12	28 Nov.	Garret Hickey -	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices. COUNTY AND CITY OF WATERFORD.

RECORD of all AGRARIAN OUTRAGES Reported by the Royal Irish Constabulary in the above-named County, between 1st November 1880 and 30th November 1880, giving Particulars of Crime, Arrests, and Results of Proceedings.

No.	Date of Offence.	Names of Injured Persons.	OFFENCE.		Names of Persons made Available.	Result of Proceedings.
			Description.	Short Details.
1	1880: 25 or 26 Oct.	Patrick Brault -	Injury to property.	The front wall of an unoccupied dwelling-house was maliciously thrown down, a large hole made in the roof, a window frame removed and broken, and a lock which secured the front door also broken. Brault took the farm upon which the house in question stood, a few days previously, having purchased the former tenant's interest, for which he paid £24 15s. There were other parties in the neighbourhood anxious to get the farm.	- - all - -	- - all.
2	26 Oct.	William Duggan	Intimidation by threatening letters or actions.	Duggan received through the Post Office a letter threatening him with death if he proposed for a farm from which a Mrs. Walsh is, it is believed, about to be evicted.	- - all - -	- - all.
3	31 Oct.	Joseph O'Neill Pore, Esq.	Taking and holding forcible possession.	The prisoner in this case alleged that nine men, some armed and disguised, entered his farm, from which he had been evicted for non-payment of two years' rent in August 1879. It could not be discovered that any such men were in the locality at the night in question.	Geoffrey Power -	Convicted at Winter Assizes 1880, held at Waterford, and sentenced to 6 months' imprisonment with hard labour.
4	6 Nov.	Michael Nugent -	Intimidation by threatening letters or actions.	Nugent received a letter threatening him with death if he did not at once give up a farm which he had recently taken, and from which the tenant concerned had been evicted for non-payment of rent.	- - all - -	- - all.
5	4 No.	Mr Henry P. J. Burke, Barr.	Taking and holding forcible possession.	The prisoner, O'Callaghan, and two men unknown, went to the house of Michael Butler, who was placed in charge of a farm from which O'Callaghan had been evicted for non-payment of rent. The men unknown directed Butler to give back possession to O'Callaghan, which he did after some hesitation.	John O'Callaghan	Convicted at Winter Assizes 1880, held at Waterford, but allowed out on his own recognizance in 1884 to cease up at next Spring Assizes for sentence.
6	6 Nov.	Patrick Brault -	Intimidation by threatening letters or actions.	Brault received through the Post Office a letter threatening his life if he did not at once give up a farm which he had recently taken. This is the farm referred to in No. 1.	- - all - -	- - all.
7	5 Nov.	G. J. Mackery, Esq., M.P.	- ditto - -	Doctor Mackery received a threatening letter through the Post Office. He had recently purchased a tenant for rent due.	- - all - -	- - all.
8	9 Nov.	Edmond Hayes -	- ditto - -	Hayes received through the Post Office a letter warning him not to have anything to do with a farm of which he was to get possession in a few days.	- - all - -	- - all.

No.	Date of Offence.	Names of Injured Persons.	OFFENCE.		Names of Persons made Accessible.	Result of Proceedings.
			Description.	Short Details.
9	1880. 11 Nov.	Edmund Hayes.	Incendiary fire.	A stack of oats, the property of Hayes, was maliciously set on fire at about 4 o'clock in the evening. See No. 8.	- - nil -	- - nil.
10	13 Nov.	Patrick Brian.	Firing into dwelling.	A shot was fired into the house of Patrick Brian between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock, p.m. Seven holes were made by the shot in two small panes of glass to the left of Brian's bed, and several marks were visible in the wall, &c. Brian paid his rent for a small house and garden a few days previously, receiving from his landlord 4s. 6d. out of the £. due by him, as a reduction, which rate of percentage (with two or three exceptions) the other tenants refused to accept.	- - nil -	- - nil.
11	16 Nov.	Congrave, Rogers Esq., J.P.	Incendiary fire.	A detached farm-house, two outhouses, and two sets of cart houses which were in the house at the time were consumed by fire.	- - nil -	- - nil.
12	18 Nov.	W. C. Bonaparte Wynne, Esq.	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	Mr. Wynne received, through the Post Office, a letter threatening his life. He has been for some time writing to the public press in contemporary terms of the present land agitation, and its promoters.	- - nil -	- - nil.
13	18 Nov.	James Watts.	- - - ditto -	Watts, who is a land agent on the College of Marguosa property at Roscommon, received through the Post Office a threatening letter. The agent was about attempting to collect the rents, and as the tenants were refused a reduction last year, it is believed the letter was sent to intimidate him, so that a reduction might be obtained this year.	- - nil -	- - nil.
14	20 Nov.	W. C. Bonaparte Wynne, Esq.	- - - ditto -	A threatening letter, similar to that in No. 12, was placed under Mr. Wynne's hall-door, where it was found by Mrs. Wynne.	- - nil -	- - nil.
15	20 Nov.	O'Dell (a laborer) - Colonel Graves, J. H. Rogers, Esq., J.P.	- - - ditto -	A threatening notice was found by the Rev. Mr. Cunningham, J.P., posted on the pier of the chapel gate at Ardara, warning the people not to pay more than Griffith's valuation as rent on the property of which the injured parties are the owners. Quinquart on Colonel Graves' property offered Griffith's valuation a few days previously, which was refused.	- - nil -	- - nil.
16	21 Nov.	Edmond Rockett.	- - - ditto -	Rockett received through the Post Office a letter, warning him to give up a free which he had recently taken, and from which the farmer tenant had been evicted. The letter was signed "Barry of the B&H," with a rude sketch of a cattle at foot.	- - nil -	- - nil.

17	25 Nov.	Patrick Blake	Killing, cutting, or maiming cattle.	Seventeen calves and one sheep, the property of Mr. Blake, were at grass on a farm from which the tenant had been evicted for non-payment of rent. On night of 24th November the cattle were driven off the farm, and on next morning nine of them were found out in the water and fields, apparently with a post-hole, one driven in the river close by, four, and the sheep still existing, supposed to have been drowned also. The remaining three were unharmed.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
18	25 Nov.	- ditto.	(Two cases.)
19	25 Nov.	David Foran	Receivory fire.	Two labourer's cottages, unoccupied, a quantity of potatoes, some farming implements, and a stack of oats, the property of Foran, were consumed by fire. This man has incurred the displeasure of the trustees adjoining on account of his having paid labour, they being unwilling to pay more than Griffith's valuation.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
20	25 Nov.	Capt. W. B. Palmer.	- - ditto -	Two stacks of straw were consumed by fire on night of 25 November. Captain Palmer evicted a tenant in the locality recently.	- - nil - -	- - nil.

	1880:
15	10 Nov.	Robert Johnson	Killing, setting, committing outrages.	On night of 10th November 1880, a broad party, the property of Mr. Johnson, was cut off by a mob of about 100 men, who were armed with a variety of weapons, and who were also armed with stones and bricks. The mob refused to disperse until the land league was dissolved.	- - -	- - -
16	10 Nov.	Arthur Pender	Administering unlawful oaths.	On night of 10th November 1880, four men, three of whom were armed, and all disguised, wearing black hoods over their faces and blackened, visited the house of Arthur Pender (Jaffee), and ordered him to go on his knees and swear to give up his position. He refused; but upon their presenting guns and pistols, and swearing they would shoot him dead if he did not obey their orders at once, he consented. Some scenes as Nov. 15.	- - -	- - -
17	10 Nov.	John Newton	Intimidation otherwise.	At about 7 p.m., on 10th November 1880, two men, wearing black hoods over their faces, visited the house of John Newton, and asked him if he was a land league man. Mrs. Newton replying that her husband was not, the men ordered her to tell him not to work "for any land league," and then if he did, they would come again, and that he (Newton) would not get off so easily. These men were armed with guns.	- - -	- - -
18	17 Nov.	Michael Kieran	Administering unlawful oaths.	At about 8 p.m., on 17th November 1880, 11 men visited the house of Michael Kieran (Jaffee), took him outside, put him on his knees, and ordered him to swear to give up his position. Two of the four men who entered the house had guns, and all had their faces blackened.	- - -	- - -
19	17 Nov.	Michael Barry	- - - ditto -	At 10 p.m., on 17th November 1880, 20 men visited the house of Michael Barry (Jaffee), dragged him outside, put him on his knees, and compelled him to swear he would give up acting as a land league man. He was struck on the ear with the butt end of a pistol. All the men were armed, and had their faces blackened.	- - -	- - -
20	17 Nov.	Patrick Gallagher	- - - ditto -	On night of 17th November 1880, about 20 men visited the house of Patrick Gallagher; 20 ordered eight had firearms, and two had sticks, and all had their faces blackened. They took him outside, ordered him to put him on his knees, and threatened him when ordering him to swear he would resign his position as a land league man.	- - -	- - -
21	19 Nov.	James McLaughlin	Intimidation otherwise.	On night of 19th November 1880, about 40 men visited the house of James McLaughlin, and told him that he must not be a land league man, then fired four or five shots.	- - -	- - -

COUNTY OF SLIGO.

RETURN of all AGRARIAN OFFENCES Reported by the Royal Irish Constabulary in the above named County, between 1st November 1880 and 30th November 1880, giving Particulars of Crime, Arrests, and Results of Proceedings.

No.	Date of Offence.	Names of Injured Persons.	OFFENCES.		Names of Persons made Amenable.	Result of Proceedings.
			Description.	Short Details.
1	1880: 20 Oct.	Richard Kennedy	Intimidation by armed parties.	A party of armed men entered the house of Richard Kennedy on the night time and wanted him to give up holding for Mr. O'Brien (who lately took a farm from which a tenant was evicted). The party then fired shots outside.	- - all - -	- - all.
2	20 Oct.	William Thornton	- - do - -	On same night an armed party entered the house of William Thornton and wanted him to give up holding for persons named O'Brien (who took a farm from which a tenant was evicted). The party then fired shots outside.	- - all - -	- - all.
3	5 Nov.	Patrick Doherty	Intimidation by threatening letter or notice.	On the night of 5th, or morning of 6th November, seven persons made a game in a field, adjoining Doherty's house, and placed a notice on a piece of stick stuck in the clay beside the game, warning him to give up some land. Doherty is in possession of some land from which another was evicted.	- - all - -	- - all.
4	6 Nov.	James Gannon	Aggravated assault.	On the night of the 6th November, a party of armed men entered the house of Gannon, dragged him outside the door, made things on his knees, when one of them struck him on the side of the head with a stick, and another on the arm. He had worked for a man who had taken a farm from which another was evicted.	- - all - -	- - all.
5	6 Nov.	Peter Kevlahan	Cutting or maiming the person.	On the night of 6th November, an armed party (about 15), entered the house of Kevlahan, dragged him to the door, when one of them stabbed him under the eye with some sharp instrument, he was then severely kicked, and struck with a spade. They then forced him on the back with an iron bar, which they fixed in the fire having three marks, about three inches long. He had worked for a man who had taken a farm from which another was evicted.	Thomas Patrick Kegan and James Kegan.	Discharged by the magistrate before whom brought, Kevlahan being in identical case.
6	6 Nov.	Peter Kevlahan	Intimidation otherwise.	On the night of the 6th November, an armed party (about 15), entered the house of Kevlahan, and having assaulted him, as described at No. 5 (cutting or maiming the person), left, firing shots outside the house.	Thomas Patrick Kegan and James Kegan.	- - do.
8 or 9	Nov.	Thomas Fay	Injury to property.	The windows, doors, &c. of an uncompleted house, belonging to Fay, were broken by some persons unknown, on night of 6th or morning of 7th November. The house and lands were recently obtained by a writ of judgment.	- - all - -	- - all.
